St. John Boutique Supports Local Las Vegas Community

Las Vegas, NV – St. John Boutique, a long time supporter of children’s charities, will host a cocktail reception and private shopping event for Ronald McDonald House Charities® (RMHC) of Greater Las Vegas on Friday, May 20th from 5 to 7 p.m.

Store manager Paula Wasielewski is solidifying St. John’s commitment to support the organization with a presentation of a $5,000 donation. Jo Ann Malone, Executive Director of RMHC, and members of the RMHC Board of Directors will be on hand to accept the check and validate the partnership.

“St. John strongly believes in supporting our local communities and we strive to help children’s causes,” says Hedy Woodrow, VP Retail. “We are pleased to have formed a relationship with such a worthwhile organization as Ronald McDonald House Charities and look forward to making a difference in the lives of children less fortunate.”

RMHC of Greater Las Vegas is a non-profit, 501 (c) 3 organization that provides temporary housing for families who travel to Las Vegas to receive medical treatment for their children. RMHC of Greater Las Vegas also supports programs that directly benefit children and families in the Greater Las Vegas area through grants, scholarships and community outreach projects.

The St. John Boutique is located in the Forum Shops at Caesar’s Palace. For more information call 702.893.0044.

About St. John

Founded in 1962 by Marie and Robert Gray, St. John has expanded beyond its origin of a small family operation to a globally recognized American luxury brand. The company, headquartered in Irvine, California today employs more than 4,000 people and operates dozens of offices and manufacturing facilities worldwide. The four distinct fashion collections are sold by top specialty stores in 28 countries and 32 company-owned retail boutiques. St. John is today, as it has always been, a carefully managed company, maintaining consistency of product through the administration of all stages throughout the design and manufacturing process. About RMHC

Ronald McDonald House Charities® works to better the lives of children and their families around the world by creating, finding and supporting programs that directly improve the health and well being of children. Since 1974, Ronald McDonald Houses around the world have been providing a “home-away-from-home” for families of seriously ill children who are receiving treatment at nearby hospitals. Each Ronald McDonald House provides a comfortable, supportive environment where families can sleep, eat, relax, and find support from families in similar situations.
